What Are You Going To Serve Those Hungry Youngsters?

With Karo selling at even lower than the low pre-war prices, you can give the young folks all they want—on pancakes, toast or biscuits—or spread on bread

YOU know it would take a young fortune to give children all the butter or jam or preserves they want to eat. That's one reason why so many mothers everywhere are giving their boys and girls lots of Karo—the Great American Syrup.

Karo is a true energy food, and helps bring strength and vitality to rapidly growing children—who use up a lot of energy in their play and study.

They'll say it's delicious. Please don't forget to tell the grocer you need it for breakfast tomorrow.
